THE THEME: DIS//COVER

People usually look at the discovery.

We decided to look at what leads to discovery. To talk about motivation. To understand the method. To share the inspiration that creates champions and reveals the new.

Discovery. To discover.

This is how we understand discovery: it is a continuous effort to figure out the world, life and ourselves within it, and an ongoing process that opens new perspectives for us and for all of humanity.

This year also, we welcome remarkable people who have discovered paths.

People who made a step forward, although at the time they dared to it seemed like a step into the unknown. Those people do not invite us to emulate them.

They just inspire us to make our own discoveries.
